

Extensive New Steel Strike Of C. I. O. Unit Held Probable

Ohio Meeting May Result in Drives in Independent Firms

WALKOUTS BEGUN

Longshoremen Union Seeks A. F. L. Support on East Coast

Pittsburgh—(AP)—A new and widespread strike by C. I. O.'s steel unit, militantly counting victories just won, was an imminent possibility today.

At two Ohio points "spontaneous" walkouts already were under way, as Philip Murray called his counsel to Youngstown, Ohio, to discuss war against two of the bloc of independent companies still holding out against his Steel Workers' Organizing committee.

The S. W. O. C., an affiliate of John L. Lewis' Committee for Industrial Organization, only last night won its third successive fight within less than a week.

By vote of 1,773 to 721 in a government-supervised employee election the C. I. O. steel unit gained the exclusive right to represent in collective bargaining the approximately 3,000 workers of the Sharon Steel company in plants at Sharon, Pa., and Lowellville, Ohio.

Other Victories

Last Friday, it won similarly among the 27,000 workers of the Jones and Laughlin Steel company; Monday it obtained a contract, carrying recognition and the right to represent its own members, from Crucible Steel.

The Youngstown "war council" was assembled to deal mainly with two companies, Republic Steel and Youngstown Sheet and Tube—and for Republic strike already had begun.

Workers affiliated with the C. I. O. struck last night at the company's plants in Canton and Massillon, Ohio, without instructions from the national leadership.

A spokesman said it was a spontaneous rebellion against discrimination against C. I. O. men, and a committee authority here confirmed that it was without Murray's prior knowledge.

New Strike Threatened

Meanwhile, still another localized strike—at the Inland Steel company in the Chicago area—had been threatened by Van A. Bittner, S. W. O. C. regional officer, because, like the others, Inland had refused to come to terms with the union.

In advance of the Youngstown meeting the S. W. O. C. would make no public comments as to the probable outcome, but privately its headquarters was represented authoritatively as prepared for a strike affecting 70,000 employees of Republic and Youngstown Sheet and Tube at plants in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and New York state.

Only a softening of the companies' attitude, it was made plain, would avert a walkout—and this seemed highly improbable, particularly in the case of Republic. Only last night that company issued a statement making clear that its unwillingness to deal with C. I. O. was deep and fundamental.

The "real issues," it said, were the closed shop and the check-off system (by which a company helps in collection of union dues). It would be the "easiest thing" to sign, said

Search Is Launched for Missing Ladysmith Girl

Ladysmith, Wis.—(AP)—Blanche Carrie Coon, 16-year-old Ladysmith girl who disappeared while on a picnic yesterday, was being sought by upper Wisconsin authorities by means of radio broadcasts. Sheriff E. Wilson of Rusk county said the girl had been traced to near Loretta in Sawyer county.

Jurors Convict Josis of Second Degree Murder

'Didn't Intend to Kill Anyone,' Prisoner Says on Witness Stand

Sheboygan—(AP)—Convicted of second degree murder, Norbert Josis, 28, awaited today sentence for the slaying of Patrolman Theodore Husting.

Second degree murder carries a penalty of 14 to 25 years imprisonment.

A circuit court jury reached a verdict last night after five hours' deliberation. After hearing the verdict, Circuit Judge Henry A. Detling ordered Josis returned to the county jail pending sentence.

The court complied with the request of Herbert S. Humke, defense counsel, for a short stay of judgment. Humke explained he would be out of the city today.

Husting was shot to death early in the morning of March 27 when he attempted to rout a prowler from the George and George tavern.

The police later arrested Josis at his home, where they found a revolver and blackjack hidden in the ashbox of a stove. They said Josis admitted attempting to burglarize the tavern and fled after exchanging shots with a policeman.

The weapons found in Josis' home were taken from the tavern.

Josis, slim and nervous, was the only witness called by the defense. He told of a premeditated plan of night time burglary.

"I didn't intend to kill anyone," he testified. "I didn't know that I had hit anyone. I just wanted to scare him away."

Josis related he had played cards and the pinball machines in the tavern during the evening before the shooting.

"I didn't go into that tavern with the intention of robbing it. When I lost my money in the machines I resolved to return and get my money back."

Must Use Helium, Eckener States

Asks Senate Military Group To Make Supply Available to Germany

Washington—(AP)—Dr. Hugo Eckener, Germany's foremost dirigible expert, said today that regardless of what caused the Hindenburg disaster, "we must change over to the use of safe helium."

He urged the senate military committee to approve legislation which would make America's helium supply available to Germany for commercial aircraft purposes.

"I know that at present," Eckener said, "existing legislation makes it difficult, if not impossible, for our airships to secure helium from your government plant, but I hope that this law is one which you could find it possible to alter."

The German dirigible expert denied earlier testimony before the committee that the German type of dirigible could not operate commercially using helium, because of its reduced lifting power.

The senators received before the session recommendations of a study committee appointed to study the helium question.

"With adequate safeguards against the military use of exported helium," said the committee, "it would appear to be the duty of this country as a good neighbor to share any unneeded surplus it may have with other countries for the promotion of commerce and science, alleviation of human suffering, and safeguarding the lives of passengers on airships, thus promoting international good will."

He said he returned to the tavern after it had closed at 1 o'clock a. m. and entered through a window he had unlatched. He testified he searched the bar first for an instrument to smash the pinball machines and found a .45 caliber automatic pistol. "I took the gun to sell it," he said.

House Leaders Against Road Relief Fund

Want Administration to Have Free Hand in Making Disbursements

STRUGGLE IS SEEN

Proponents of Plan Show No Signs of Yielding on Issue

Washington—(AP)—House leaders urged their colleagues today to reverse their tentative decision to set aside one-third of the proposed $1,500,000,000 relief fund for roads, dams and other special purposes.

They asked that the administration be given a free hand in disbursing the money, quoting President Roosevelt's comment that every dollar earmarked for other purposes meant fewer jobs for persons on relief.

Participants in yesterday's revolt to allocate $505,000,000 for special expenditures, however, showed no disposition to yield.

Representatives Beiler (D-N.Y.), Starnes (D-Ala.) and Cartwright (D-Ore.) joined in a letter urging members who voted for the earmarking amendments to "stay put, because pressure may be brought to bear."

Final Test Delayed

Because of the annual memorial service in the house this afternoon, the final test of strength was postponed until tomorrow.

Representative Woodrum (D-Va.) said that before a vote was taken on the relief bill as a whole, he would demand another vote on each of the earmarking proposals. A majority could overturn yesterday's decisions.

The amounts tentatively set apart for $45,000,000 for flood control, $300,000,000 for the public works administration, $150,000,000 for highway construction and grade crossing elimination, $10,000,000 for building small lakes and ponds in the great plains, scene of recent droughts.

'Pork Barrel' Charge

The debate brought a warning from Representative Boland (D-Pa.) of a possible presidential veto if the earmarked funds were retained in the bill. Cries of "pork barrel" also were heard.

"Pork barrel" is a term applied to a bill providing money to be spent in the home districts of many congressmen.

Administration chiefs protested against all the amendments diverting funds.

Strike on at Ford California Plant

Union Leader Terms It 'First Gun in War Against Henry Ford'

Detroit—(AP)—A group of workmen beat two high officials of the United Automobile Workers of America today as union members began the distribution of literature at the gates of the Ford Motor company's Rouge plant.

Richard T. Frankenstein, directing the union's campaign to organize Ford workers, was knocked down a dozen times. His coat was torn from his back and his face was cut and bruised.

Walter Reuther, president of the union's west side local, suffered a bloody nose.

Richmond, Calif.—(AP)—Union workers at the Ford assembly plant here went on a strike today and an official of the United Automobile Workers of America declared it was "the first gun in the war against Henry Ford."

Production ceased immediately and a mass picket line around the plant stopped admittance of company officials and non-union workers.

"This is the first gun in the war against Henry Ford," said Frank Shady, president of the local unit of the Automobile Workers' union, affiliated with the committee for industrial organization.

State declared the strike would spread to other Ford units, while at Detroit the automobile workers' union prepared to distribute its "unionism, not Fordism" leaflets at the plant gate.

Judge Assails State Labor Relations Board

Charles L. Aaron Said Voice of Criticism of the State Labor Relations Board for Its Failure to Conciliate a Dispute Between the American Federation of Labor and the Committee for Industrial Organization in the Milwaukee Restaurant Field

Judge Aaron's remarks were uttered in his chambers during a recess in the suit of Winkley's restaurant for an injunction to restrain the United Catering Workers' union (C. I. O.) from continuing a sit-down strike on the premises.

Judge Aaron is presiding at the hearing. Attorneys referred to testimony that the state labor relations board refused to take up the controversy because of alleged threats of the A. F. L. to picket the restaurant if the C. I. O. won an election to see which union had the bargaining right.

May Corn Jumps Over 5 Cents in Sensational Trade

Chicago—(AP)—A last minute "squeeze" in the corn market today skyrocketed the price of May corn more than 5 cents a bushel to $1.40, highest price for any corn contracts in 17 years.

Although "longs" in May corn, those that held contracts for delivery of the grain before the end of the month, could have demanded a full 8 cents hoist in the value, they rushed to accept their profits within seconds of the final bell, selling out at around $1.40.

It was the most sensational windup of trading in grain contract on the board of trade in many months. Trading in May corn in the futures pit has ended but sellers have three days in which to make delivery.

Additional Taxes Likely Next Term, Duffy Indicates

No Action Expected at Current Session of Congress, Senator Says

Milwaukee—(AP)—Discussing the government financial condition, United States Senator F. Ryan Duffy said today that in balancing the federal budget congress is confronted by two alternatives, "one is to attempt a reduction in the amount of appropriations, and the other is the possibility of increased income to the government through additional taxes."

The Ford du Lac senator addressed the junior chamber of commerce, one of five talks planned during a two-day visit here.

"It is not expected that at this session of the congress there will be any tax bill," he said. "Those special taxes which would expire this year will be continued, but in my opinion there will not be any increase in rate, or additional or new taxes, at this session of the congress."

"In fact, by next November the treasury is expected to bring to the appropriate committee of the congress information with reference to any additional or new taxes that may be necessary to meet the deficiencies. Any action on such recommendations undoubtedly would be at the second session of the seventy-fifth congress."

That to Credit

Declaring he believed the results obtained by government borrowing and spending to restore purchasing power "very much worth while," the senator added: "But of course you cannot continue forever living upon borrowed money, especially if your expenses exceed your income."

If this condition were to continue, too, a government credit would again be impaired with every likelihood of a period of monetary inflation, which of course would be disastrous to all of our people."

Senator Duffy said he believed there should be certain changes in the present undistributed surplus law.

"I think there should be more leeway," he said, "so that corporations could restore their impaired surpluses, and could make arrangements towards retiring indebtedness without suffering the penalties which they now are subject under the law as it exists."

Five Killed, Two Dying After Auto-Truck Crash

Catskill, N. Y.—(AP)—At least five men were killed and two are dying in consequence of a head-on crash between a New Jersey truck and a small Massachusetts automobile near West Coxsackie early today.

Lieutenant Harvey A. Keator of the state police said he had determined the number who died in the flaming wreckage of the two vehicles after questioning a survivor.

Joshua Cohen, 21, Dorchester, Mass., was killed at the scene.

"The bodies of three of Cohen's companions are unaccounted for," Keator said as he investigated the head-on collision and burning of the two machines.

"There were six men in the automobile. Apparently there were two men in the truck, and both were cremated."

16 Wedding Guests are Announced for Marriage of Edward, Wallis June 3

Monts. France—(AP)—Sixteen wedding guests, several of them holding British official positions, were announced today for the June 3 marriage of the duke of Windsor and Wallis Warfield by Herman L. Rogers, their American spokesman.

The guests include Hugh Lloyd Thomas, first secretary of the British embassy in Paris; Sir Walter T. Monckton, attorney general of the duchy of Cornwall and Lady Walford Selby, wife of the British minister of Vienna.

Major L. B. Metcalfe, who will attend with Lady Alexandra Metcalfe, will be the duke of Windsor's best man. The major is the duke's equerry.

Rogers would not comment on the fact that 30 invitations sent out, only 16 acceptances were received.

Some persons close to the Chateau de Candé, where the wedding will take place, also attached significance to the fact that Lady Selby will attend without her husband, the minister to Austria. However, Rogers pointed to the acceptance of Thomas, another British diplomat.

There have been reports that the British government held out to the last against the attendance of Sir Walford Selby, despite the duke of Windsor's pleadings. Sir Walford was one of Edward's confidantes during his self-exile last winter in Austria.

The other guests: Baroness Eugenie de Rothschild, owner of the Englefield castle where Windsor stayed during the first part of his Austrian wait.

Mrs. D. Buchanan Nymman, Mrs. Warfield's "Aunt Bessie," from Washington.

Charles E. Bedaux and Mrs. Bedaux, of New York, owners of the Chateau de Candé.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Graham. He is British consul at Nantes.

A. G. Allen of London, the duke's attorney.

Dudley Forwood, an equerry of the duke.

(It has been emphasized that the British guests who have any official connection with the government will be at the wedding in a strictly unofficial capacity. The British government has insisted that the wedding be unobtrusive, with no British official character. No member of the royal family will attend.

President Is Firm in Stand On Court Bill

Labor, Power and Other Important Laws Still Facing Tests

MEETS OPPOSITION

Leading Democrats Hoping Roosevelt Will Withdraw Proposal

Washington—(AP)—President Roosevelt is insisting on his judiciary reorganization bill, it was disclosed today, because labor, power and other key administration policies still face court tests.

For that reason, he indicated at a press conference, he does not share the view of some supporters that recent supreme court decisions mean his battle has been won.

Leading Democrats, declining to be quoted by name, nevertheless said there was talk of some senate friends of the court bill suggesting to the president one at a time that he withdraw it as no longer necessary.

That suggestion grew in part out of the court's validation of the social security program, which Mr. Roosevelt yesterday called gratifying. He expressed a hope the court would keep the same human viewpoint in future cases.

Other Vital Questions

Some of the fundamental questions still to be decided, he said, are involved in the new wage and hour bill. Others may arise from legislation to be recommended in his message on national planning, expected to reach congress this week.

The ban on child labor proposed in the labor standards measure, he said, will involve reversal of a 1918 decision that such legislation violates federal interstate commerce powers.

The wage and hour provisions themselves and further strengthening of collective bargaining rights, he added, also will raise vital legal issues.

Senator Norris (D-Neb.) will propose establishment of seven regional planning agencies like the Tennessee valley authority to carry out the president's planning recommendations. Flood control, navigation improvement, irrigation, soil erosion control and power development will be embraced.

TVA Fate in Doubt

Mr. Roosevelt pointed out that the government was not finally sure of the TVA's status. The supreme court upheld construction of Wilson dam but did not pass on other parts of the TVA act.

Mr. Roosevelt indicated he also was concerned over whether the court would uphold the lending of federal funds for construction of municipally-owned power plants.

If such loans could be made for hospitals and state paving, he said, he assumed power loans were valid, but the issue still has to be settled.

The president cited flood control projects in the Ohio watershed and the right of the federal government to condemn land for low cost housing developments as presenting other basic constitutional questions.

He had nothing to say about whether the 12 administration victories in the supreme court during this term had removed what he originally called an "emergency" need for the judiciary bill. That was for the newspaper men to guess, he said with a smile.

6,000 Match Workers May Launch Walkout

Oshkosh—(AP)—Frances Gerhart, president of the National Match Workers' union, said today a sympathy strike of 6,000 match workers in Ohio, Minnesota, Washington and Pennsylvania would be called unless a dispute at the Wisconsin Match corporation here is settled.

He said the number would include west coast lumber workers whose work involves the wood used in the manufacture of matches.

Gerhart, representing between 250 and 300 Oshkosh workers, said he would confer today with Franklin Moore, vice president and general manager of the match corporation.

Charles declared Harry F. Schreck, conciliator of the federal labor department, was refused admittance by company officials to an earlier meeting.

But the decree of Feb. 15, nevertheless, prohibited provisional church governing committees from exercising jurisdiction until "after the election." That, it was understood, was the basis of today's arrests.

Fundamentalists and Liberals Face Struggle

Columbus, Ohio—(AP)—A struggle between the fundamentalist and liberal groups in the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America is represented in three cases to be submitted to the church's 149th general assembly, convening here tomorrow.

It revolves about refusal of the presbytery of Duluth, Minn., to license William Van Dyken as a candidate for the ministry, largely on the ground he was considered extremely liberal theologically.

The Synod of Minnesota, a super-judiciary, ordered the presbytery to release Van Dyken from its jurisdiction. Van Dyken then went to the Presbytery of Black Hills (South Dakota), which granted him a license.

The Presbytery of Duluth, however, refused to release him and appealed to the general assembly from its synod's order. The permanent judicial commission of the church will hand down a preliminary decision on the appeal, and the assembly, sitting as a court, must affirm or reject it.

French Passenger Plane Shot Down in Bilbao Region

Pilot Makes Landing on Open Ground Northwest of City

Bilbao—(AP)—Insurgent air raiders were reported to have brought down a French passenger plane today at Sopelana, nine miles north-west of here.

The plane was approaching the mouth of the Nervion river, towards the coast from Bilbao, when seven insurgent planes, described by Basques as a German-built fleet, were reported to have raked it with machine gun fire.

The pilot, Jean Gally, a veteran and war-wise former French army flier, dived and made a pancake landing on open ground near Sopelana.

The windows of the transport's cabin were reported to have been perforated by dozens of bullets.

Gally, who had dodged insurgent aerial attacks on frequent previous trips between France and the Basque capital, was reported injured. Advice reaching here said the plane was completely wrecked.

None of the five Spanish passengers, one of them a woman, was believed hurt, however.

The plane was enroute to this beleaguered Basque capital when it was shot down in the insurgent attack. It belonged to the "Air-Pyrénées" French line and was in shuttle service between Bayonne, France, and Bilbao.

Basque officials declared the airliner had been attacked by several Heinkel chasers while flying over government territory.

Sopelana is about five miles west of the point where the insurgent rning about Bilbao meets the coast of the bay of Biscay.

There were five passengers aboard the plane.

Gestapo Arrests Five Preachers

Executive Group Accused Of Violating Hitler Church Decree

Berlin—(AP)—The Gestapo (state secret police) was disclosed tonight to have imprisoned all five members of the executive committee for church government of the Confessional synod, which opposes Nazi domination of the German Protestant church.

The five preachers, it was disclosed, were arrested last night. The reason was understood to be a violation of a Hitler church decree.

Last Feb. 15 Adolf Hitler issued a decree calling for an Evangelical church election. Under this decree, the church members themselves were to decide what kind of church government they would have by electing a new general synod.

Technically, the confessional, or Nazi opposition, would have had the same chance as any other group to control this general synod if they could get enough votes.

But a controversy quickly arose over who should be allowed to vote. Confessional leaders pointed out that any German paying the Evangelical church tax were permitted to vote, this would give the Nazi element an unfair advantage. They contended only a fraction of those contributing to the support of the Protestant church in Germany really have any interest in its welfare.

Hence for one reason or the other the elections have been indefinitely delayed.

But the decree of Feb. 15, nevertheless, prohibited provisional church governing committees from exercising jurisdiction until "after the election." That, it was understood, was the basis of today's arrests.

Fond du Lac Man Dies

In Automobile Crash

Byron, Wis.—(AP)—C. E. Keller, 40, Fond du Lac, was killed yesterday in a head-on automobile collision on United States Highway 41 near here. Three others, seriously injured in the crash, were taken to a Fond du Lac hospital.

They were Mrs. W. J. Thorpe, Milwaukee, passenger with Keller; and Mrs. Irma Johnson, Elroy, and Edward J. Pincasak, New Lisbon, occupants of the second car.

Sheriff Gilbert Booth of Fond du Lac said the accident occurred on a straight stretch of highway.

Roosevelt Asks Senate To Approve Agreement For Peace in Americas

VISITS PONTIFF
Castel Gandolfo, Italy—(AP)—Alfréd E. Smith, had a half-hour audience with Pope Pius today and remarked afterwards that the pontiff is "looking much more vigorous than a man many years younger." The former New York governor presented the pope with a 10-inch gold replica of the Empire State building, made by a New York jeweler. He was accompanied by Mrs. Smith.

Citing the initiative exercised by the United States in the meeting, the president said that "it would, therefore, seem to me particularly fitting that the United States government be among the first American governments in the ratification of the instruments that the conference adopted, thereby giving a further indication of the sincerity of the good neighbor policy."

Calling attention to his personal appearance at the conference, the president said in his message to the senate that he could therefore testify personally "to the earnestness of purpose of the many outstanding statesmen of the Americas gathered there and to their determination to give an example to the world of international cooperation in order that peace may prevail."

Brady Gangsters Blamed for Bank Raid, Shootings

'May Make Dillinger's Gang Look Like Neophytes,' Officer Warns

Indianapolis—(AP)—State Police Captain Matt Leach warned today that three fugitive Brady mobsters, whom he blamed for a $250 bank robbery at Goodland, and the wounding of two officers, "may make Dillinger's gang look like neophytes."

He urged bankers in small mid-west communities to guard against possible future forays of the will-o-wisp gunmen—Al Brady, Clarence Lee Shaffer, Jr., and James Doherty—long sought for two killings and several midwest jewelry and bank robberies.

These men are desperate and kill-crazy," Leach declared. "They will stop at nothing."

Overnight, the police of Indiana, Ohio and Michigan investigated numerous tips of the fugitives' whereabouts, but the trail grew cold.

The latest victim of the bandits' ruthless gunfire, State Policeman Paul Minnenham, 33, was in critical condition at a Logansport hospital. He received blood transfusions during the night, and physicians termed the fight to save him as "almost hopeless."

Cass County Deputy Sheriff Elmer Craig, 45, who with Minnenham was shot down shortly after the bank robbery yesterday, was reported in improved condition. His wounds were less serious.

Development Authority Bill Delayed for Week

Madison—(AP)—By a margin of one vote, 17 to 16, the senate laid over for a week today consideration of Senator Roland E. Kannerberg's Wisconsin Development Authority bill, known as the "little TVA" measure.

Senator Arthur L. Zimny (D), Milwaukee, who usually votes with Progressives backing the bill, cast the deciding vote for delay.

A companion bill introduced by Assemblyman Andrew J. Biemiller (A), Milwaukee, has been passed in the assembly. It would permit the state to engage in promotion of public utilities.

Kennedy Marketing Bill Is Killed in Assembly

Madison—(AP)—The Kennedy bill creating a state marketing authority with broad corporate powers was killed by the assembly today without debate or roll call.

The bill proposed to set up a board of five members appointed by the governor which could engage in marketing, buying, selling, shipping, manufacturing, or processing of agricultural or other commodities.

It would have permitted the board to issue bonds and to receive loans from any federal agencies.

The bill was introduced by Assemblyman D. D. Kennedy (P), Polk, who is a farmer.

Bridge Fiesta Faces Threat of Boycott

San Francisco—(AP)—San Francisco's Golden Gate bridge fiesta was threatened today with a maritime labor boycott today in protest over use in decorations of Nazi German flags. One was ripped down by unidentified men.

The festival already is harassed by a group of men bearing a long pole fitted with a cutting device, tore the flag from its overhead wire.

The Bay District council of the Federation of the Pacific, shipping union group, through its district secretary, said a vote would be called on whether the organization would withdraw from celebrations dedicating $33,000,000 bridge.

Six New Teachers Engaged by Board For 1937-38 Term

Routine Business Concerning New High School Discussed

Six new teachers were engaged last night by the board of education for work in the public schools during the next school term which starts in September. The board also considered routine business concerning the new senior high school.

Because of the increased registration at high school for classes next term, Miss Irene Boserman, Appleton, was engaged as a German and business science instructor.

Miss Genevieve Kronschnabel, Appleton, was hired to succeed Miss Betty King as girl's physical education instructor at Roosevelt Junior High school. Miss Kronschnabel is a graduate of LaCrosse State Teachers college and is teaching at Richland Center. Miss King recently resigned.

The board hired Miss Charlotte Foss, Sparta, as teacher of the combination fifth and sixth grade at Columbus school and the successful Miss Frances Lindsay, who resigned. The new teacher also is a graduate of LaCrosse teachers college.

Appleton Girls Engaged

Miss Elizabeth Meyer, Appleton, a graduate of Lawrence college, was engaged to fill the vacancy in the social science department at McKinley Junior high school caused by the resignation of Miss Jean Shannon. Miss Meyer is now teaching at Tony High school.

Miss Hazel Westphal, Milwaukee, will teach girl's physical education classes at Wilson Junior High school next year. Miss Westphal is a graduate of the LaCrosse teachers college and succeeds Miss Helen Gilman who will teach physical education in the senior high school next term.

The sixth teacher engaged last night was Miss Freda Lewis, Marshfield, who will teach the first grade at Jefferson school. The new instructor is a graduate of LaCrosse teachers college. She will take the place of Miss Frances Patten, who recently resigned.

Approve Contract

The board voted to have Miss Agnes Jolin, fifth grade instructor at Edison school, work one month this summer on a conservation manual for the first six grades.

Because the United States Employment bureau cannot supply sufficient qualified carpenters and laborers for work at the new senior high school, PWA authorities have granted the request of Maurice Schumacher, general contractor, that his employees be permitted to work 40 hours a week. The request also was approved by the board.

The report of Smith and Brandt, Appleton architects, on concrete tests at the new school was accepted. The report stated that all concrete poured for the basement walls and footings has been tested and found excellent. The board also approved samples of artificial stone which will be used in the building. Drawings of ornamental work for the academic section and insurance certificates for subcontractors.

C. I. O. Steel Group Considers Strikes

Republic, "but that doesn't make it the right thing."

Murray has called Republic and Youngstown members of an "unholy alliance" and as he signed yesterday the exclusive contract gained by election with Jones and Laughlin he struck out again at them.

They had "definitely determined," he asserted, "to thwart the intent and purpose of the national labor relations act, regardless of the consequences which may result to their corporations."

Cincinnati—Joseph P. Ryan, president of the Longshoremen's union, sought united American Federation of Labor action on the Atlantic coast waterfront today to prevent the spread of C. I. O. activity.

Contending that John L. Lewis' Committee for Industrial Organization and communists were closely linked in their seaport activities, Ryan went before the A. F. of L. executive council to try to settle numerous jurisdictional disputes that have hampered the federation waterfront unions in their efforts to combat the Lewis movement.

As the first move in his anti-Lewis program, Ryan threatened to call strikes against all ships that employed radio operators belonging to the Radio Telegraphists' association, a C. I. O. union. Ryan said this union was strictly communist.

The water front unions have been beset by division for several years. First, all of the Pacific coast unions, but the longshoremen broke away from their international unions sev-

SIT-DOWN MINERS RECEIVE MAIL AS STRIKE GOES ON

The husky coal miner (left) is the unofficial postman for more than 350 sit-down strikers who have occupied a shaft in the Superior Coal company's mine at Wilkesville, Ill. He has just returned from the surface with a sack of mail from relatives above and sympathizers. Meanwhile, negotiations toward settlement were abandoned, when the miners refused to evacuate and the strike became an endurance contest.

Consider Gym Repairs At Appleton Y. M. C. A.

A general repair program including the refinishing of floors in the gymnasium and handball courts was considered yesterday by the Y. M. C. A. house committee. All equipment will be checked soon and the committee approved the installation of electric light outlets in 20 dormitory rooms. Railings will be placed on two stairways leading from the locker room to the gymnasium and from the boy's lobby to the boy's clubrooms. No action was taken on coal bids.

Job Office Manager Will Attend Conclave

Fred R. Gehrk, manager of the Wisconsin State Employment Service bureau located here, will attend a conference of employment managers at Madison Thursday and Friday. Procedures and employment problems will be discussed.

World's First Hydro-Electric Plant Built Here

First Electrically-Lighted Hotel Also Was in Appleton

Although New York City has been given credit for the first electrical generating station in the world, the first hydro-electrical central station in the world was built in Appleton before 1900. Ross E. Williams, sales manager at the Wisconsin Michigan Power company, told Rotary club members yesterday as he traced the history of electrical inventions since 1882.

"The first residence in the country ever to be illuminated by a hydro-electrical plant was the building now occupied by the Hearstone Tea room which was then owned by H. B. Rogers. In 1883, the old Waverly house became the first electrically wired hotel in the United States," the speaker said.

Electrical service in the early days was given from dusk to dawn and electricity was used only for lighting. Mr. Williams said, as he told of the first plant which was 15 feet long and 20 feet wide and which contained one machine.

Rates in 1912 were 12 cents a kilowatt hour and no special prices were quoted for those who used more than the average amount of current, he stated. Rates also were based on the number of outlets but this now has been changed.

Improvements Made

"Many of the improvements in recent years are a result of the activity of electrical equipment manufacturers and the dream of an all-electric home may soon come true," the speaker said.

Soon after improvements were made, commercial departments were organized by utilities to care for complaints, new contracts, payments and sale of equipment. Mr. Williams said. As the utilities grew, the government began placing hidden taxes on electrical work and people clamored for lower rates, he explained.

Sale of Equipment

Discussing the Wisconsin Michigan Power company, Mr. Williams said that the sales department is primarily for the sale of equipment and the establishment of good will. The local office is the first and only completely air-conditioned office in the state.

The speaker told of the company's plan of giving away electricity in 1933 and 1934 when excess power was being generated. He pointed out that the average resident consumer used 42 kilowatt hours a month in 1932 and this average now has risen to 62 kilowatt hours. In 1933, the average remained at 42 but jumped to 51 in 1934. The average in 1935 and 1936 was 62 kilowatts.

Mr. Williams also showed the advances made in the manufacture of electric lamps and showed a lamp which in early days gave 10 candle power for one cent. Lamps now being made will give 170 candle power for the same money, he stated.

Plans are Outlined for Memorial Day Observance

Clintonville—The Rev. J. B. Gehl of Denmark, Wis., will be the principal speaker at the Memorial day program to be held at Graceland cemetery on Monday. He will be introduced by John Tanty, chairman of the Memorial day committee.

The parade to the cemetery will form on E. Twelfth street and will begin at 9 o'clock. Children from the public and St. Martin Lutheran schools will join the procession at Eighth and Main streets and the pupils of St. Rose Catholic school will join the line of march at Seventh street.

A water ceremony in honor of the sailors who gave their lives for their country will take place at 9:15 at the Main street bridge. Captain S. J. Tilleson will be the officer of the day.

The line of march will be: colors, national guard, high school band, speakers, the Rev. J. B. Gehl, the Rev. L. G. Moland and chairman John B. Tanty, truck with flower girls, G. A. R. and Relief Corps, Spanish American War Veterans, Veterans of Foreign Wars, American Legion, Sons of the American Legion, War Mothers, V. of F. W. Auxiliary, American Legion auxiliary, Junior Auxiliary of the American Legion, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, school children, citizens.

Upon the arrival of the parade at Graceland cemetery, the program will open with the singing of America by the assembly, with accompaniment by the high school band. The high school girls' trio will sing "Land of our Heart," after which the Rev. L. G. Moland will give the invocation. The address by Father Gehl will be followed by the selection, "Let Us Forget" by the high school boys' glee club. Memorial services will next be conducted by the Veterans of Foreign Wars, its auxiliary, and the Women's Relief Corps. Poppy crosses will be placed on the graves of soldiers by the Junior auxiliary of the American Legion. After the playing of "The Star Spangled Banner" by the band the firing squad ceremonies will be conducted by Company A, 107th Quartermaster Corps of the National Guard and the benediction will be made by the Rev. L. G. Moland.

At 11:30 a program will be held at Riverside cemetery in Embarras, at which the Rev. J. B. Gehl will give a short address and musical selections will be furnished by the Clintonville high school band. In case of rain, the Memorial day program will take place at the Clintonville armory.

Clintonville students who will graduate this year from Oshkosh State Teachers college are Franklin Haven, Miss Jane Pomrenning and Miss Ethel Huebner.

William Kuester of this city will complete a law course in June at the University of Wisconsin.

Miss Florence Nelson will be among the graduates at Ripon college next month.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Kunschke have purchased the Max Schrade residence on W. Ninth street and expect to move into it soon. The Albert Bucholtz home on Brx street, which has been occupied by the Kunschke's for several years, has been rented to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lang and family.

average in 1935 and 1936 was 62 kilowatts.

Mr. Williams also showed the advances made in the manufacture of electric lamps and showed a lamp which in early days gave 10 candle power for one cent. Lamps now being made will give 170 candle power for the same money, he stated.

Remedy Against Unwise Laws Now Outside of Courts

Business, Individuals Must Rely on Ballot, Lawrence Says

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
Washington—For two years, national affairs in America have been passing through a significant evolution. This week may be said to mark the ending of one distinct epoch and the beginning of another of transcendent importance.

Up to now, business and industry have relied primarily upon the courts to maintain the traditional precedents with respect to human rights in property. This reliance has carried with it the notion that the restraint against unwise laws would be found in the judiciary's rejection of unconstitutional uses of governmental power.

Today, however, after an experience with the courts of just 24 months, business and industry, and all those individuals who fear confiscation of their savings by a system of collectivism, know that the remedy against unwise laws is what Justice Stone said it was in January, 1936—it is outside the law courts and at the ballot box, which is but another way of saying it is in the great court of public opinion.

The public emphasis from now on is not going to be on whether a law is constitutional or unconstitutional—it is merely legal aspects—but whether it is sound or unsound economics. In a peculiar sense, the supreme court of the United States, by its unanimous rejection of the NRA two years ago—May 27, 1935—did a disservice to the opponents of the New Deal which was far greater than the alleged defeat which the administration claimed to have suffered.

Courts Are Blamed
For when the supreme court outlawed the NRA, it furnished the New Deal with a head-on defense, namely that the social reforms it had been planning were wise, but that the courts had interfered with them. The country from that moment on was led to believe by President Roosevelt that such setbacks as has been noted in failing to re-employ millions of people were due to "reactionary" courts.

Today, as one traces the decisions of the last two years and sees how judicial interpretation has been gradually formulated to permit the broad objectives of the New Deal to be validated, there can be no further contention that the courts are interfering with social progress of legislative experimentation.

Little by little, the New Deal, by getting better and better lawyers to argue the cases, by exercising better and better draftsmanship in writing the laws, and more and more skill in selecting cases for test purposes, has acquired enough authority to do in a constitutional way many of the things which it had striven hastily and clumsily to do.

Saved New Deal
But it was the supreme court which saved the New Deal from considerable adverse voting in 1936 because, had the NRA been permitted to function uninterruptedly, the law would have produced such widespread irritation and dissatisfaction as to cause a reaction throughout the country.

From now on, the coast is clear for the New Deal. The administration is about to resume its social experiments.

ments, except that now no court will intervene unless perhaps in extreme cases of arbitrary or uneven application of governmental power as between individuals in the same class.

Likewise, it is doubtful if the constitutional argument will be invoked as often hereafter as heretofore. In some respects, this is a progressive development because American opinion and debate has been so concentrated on arguing the legal or constitutional phases of New Deal laws as to obscure the questions of actual practicability of workability.

No Spending Barrier
There is no constitutional barrier, for instance, to unlimited spending, unbalanced budgets, or national bankruptcy.

There is no constitutional barrier to confiscation of property by heavy taxation.

There is no constitutional barrier against forcing more unemployment through a breakdown in the system of exchanging goods at fair prices.

There is no constitutional barrier against reduction of real wages, which is but another way of expressing the rising curve in living costs.

There is no constitutional barrier now against working less hours and producing less output and thus materially reducing the sum total of goods for use.

There is, in fact, no constitutional barrier against the redistribution of poverty any more than there is now against the redistribution of wealth by taxes that burden and break down the price structure.

Voters Must Decide
Millions of voters, the owners of property and the owners of jobs, those with small savings and large, will have to say now as they watch the courtes of economic events whether the New Deal is an influence for the social betterment or an instable influence like its counterpart in the labor government in England, which, with its loose fiscal policy, came near wrecking the British empire.

The New Deal now has all the law it needs, all the court backing it can possibly use, and the question now is whether or not it can head off national insolvency and actually increase employment so as to absorb the millions still idle.

Unless the New Deal can accomplish that task in the next two or four years, the American people at the ballot box will indicate their choice of some other leadership. But the supreme court, winding up this week a difficult and delicate course through a 2-year period of intense controversy, has gradually demonstrated that the constitution is sufficiently flexible to permit the New Deal to conduct social and economic experiments nationally or through the states or through a combination of both and that it isn't up to the supreme court to save the nation from unworkable laws if the nation doesn't care to save itself through the processes of representative government in general and through the congress of the United States in particular.

Another Resignation
When the present term of the supreme court ends next week, there may be another resignation from the bench. This will not dispose of, but will turn to one side, the president's bill to reorganize the judiciary. The chances are the bill will not be withdrawn, but will be allowed to lapse till next session and will be held during the remainder of the Roosevelt administration as a sort of club over the judiciary, revealing all the more the reason why if New Deal laws are bad, the people who believe them unsound or the victims of the unsound experimentation must have recourse to other methods of redress.

For the constitutional crisis in America is over so far as the supreme court is concerned. The constitutional debate has been turned into another direction and presenting the nation with another issue—whether or not constitutional government shall be restored by dissolving the merger of the executive and legislative branches. This can be achieved only by the congress itself in recovering its prerogatives and in resuming the writing of regulatory laws hitherto delegated to administrative commissions.

Forecast Higher Egg Prices for Fall and Winter

Lower Feed Costs Also in Prospect for Poultrymen in State

Higher egg prices and lower feed costs for poultry are forecast for next fall and winter by farm economists of the state college of agriculture, according to R. C. Swanson, county agricultural agent. Although commercial hatchings in March were somewhat larger than a year ago, the unfavorable price relationship between feed and eggs has caused poultrymen to be hesitant in the purchase of baby chicks, the county agent has been informed. Heavy cancellation of orders resulted with many hatcheries being left with surplus chicks on their hands during the early hatching season. Hatchings in April were reported to be about 8 per cent less than that of a year ago and on

May 1 advance orders with commercial hatcheries for future delivery over 54 per cent less than for the same date last year. Farm laying flocks are now of less than average size, a condition which with a reduced hatch, economists suggest will result in smaller supplies of fresh eggs and consequently higher prices next fall and winter. A small hatch will mean fewer pullets with which to replenish farm flocks next fall. Added to this encouraging price situation is the probability that with anything like normal yields the 1937 harvest will provide feeds at lower costs. Aiding the present price situation is the fact that there is now a heavy movement of eggs into storage. About a third more eggs went into storage from March 1 to May 1 than a year ago, economists report. Although these eggs will later be placed on the market, the quantity is probably not sufficient to prevent egg prices next fall from being higher than a year earlier. With this situation in prospect, farm economists and poultrymen of the college of agriculture are suggesting to poultrymen throughout the state that laying flocks be maintained at the usual size for the coming year.

County Sportsmen Elect Committee For State Work

Appleton, Kaukauna and
Seymour Men Selected
Last Night

R. A. Bentz, Appleton, A. J. Reith, Kaukauna, and Richard Reyer, Seymour, last night were named by county sportsmen as the Outagamie county committee to assist the state conservation commission, with representatives of other counties, in formulating Wisconsin's fish and game laws for the coming year. Fifteen sportsmen attended the meeting which was held at the courthouse.

M. J. Verfurth, Kaukauna, was named first alternate to serve on the committee in case one of the regular members can not attend meetings. Oscar Sommers, Appleton, was elected the second delegate. At an informal meeting the county committee selected Mr. Reith, who is serving his third term as a member of the committee, chairman.

The sportsmen voted to file a protest with the conservation commission concerning the tentative removal of Conservation Warden George Whalen, Appleton, to Waukegan county. Mr. Bentz was elected chairman of the meeting last night. Last year's county committee included Mark Catlin, Sr., Appleton, Hugo Schuldes, Stephenville, and Mr. Reith.

Vote on First Ballot
On the first ballot, Mr. Reith was elected a committee member. He was opposed by Mr. Reyer and Mr. Sommers. Mr. Bentz won on the second ballot and was opposed by Mr. Reyer and N. Klein, Appleton. Mr. Reyer was opposed by Mr. Sommers on the third ballot. In the vote for first alternate, Mr. Verfurth won on the first ballot, defeating Mr. Sommers. Mr. Sommers then was elected second alternate.

On the vote for chairman of the meeting, Mr. Bentz was opposed by Mr. Verfurth and Mr. Reyer.

The conservation commission has set the following qualifications for committee members: that he be a trusted sportsman; that he be nonprejudiced; that he know county fish and game problems; that he did not play politics to get the position; that he has not been convicted of a fish or game violation in the last five years.

The members will serve until June 1, 1938, and will pay their own traveling expenses in attending the commission meeting in June.

The Outagamie committee now becomes an integral part of the advisory council to the conservation department and commission and will represent the sportsmen and general public of this county in an advisory capacity on all fish, game and other pertinent conservation matters.

Seymour High Music Groups Awarded Honors

Seymour — The Seymour High School band, girls' glee club and a capella chorus participated in the district music festival at West De Pere last Saturday. The glee club, under the direction of Miss Frances Kernin, sang "June Rhapsody" and "I Had a Little Soldier." This group was awarded first division honors in Class C and was especially complimented for its enthusiasm, appearance and performance. The capella chorus, singing also in Class C, was given a second division rating. The selections rendered by the chorus were "In These Delightful Pleasant Groves" and Brahms' "Lullaby."

The band, under the direction of E. T. Hawkins, was entered in the Class C concert, sight reading and parade contests. First division honors were awarded this organization in both concert and sight reading. Captain Howard Bronson, band contest judge, gave the band a straight-A rating in every phase of its performance. He praised especially the band's appearance, discipline, intonation, attack and tonal coloring. The concert numbers played by the band were "March Youth," "Panora Overture," and "Scarlet Mask" overture. In the parade contest the band was awarded second division honors.

Annual reports were given by the officers and Miss Pynn spoke briefly of the program for the next year.

Announcement was made of three picnics to take the place of the summer meeting. The first will be a Sunday morning breakfast in June, the date to be announced. The Misses Edith Van Startum and Eva Bushey will be in charge of the June event. The July picnic committee will include the Misses Mabel Rahn and Ilabec Stern, and the August picnic will be under the direction of the Misses Lydia Hollenbeck and Catherine Nooyen. "Beethoven's famous 'Sonata Pathétique' and the Schumann 'Pavane', Opus 44, are included in program to be played by Barbara Webster at Peabody hall Friday evening.

Mrs. Webster, instructor in piano at Lawrence Conservatory of Music, is presenting the program as a candidate for the Master of Music degree at Lawrence college. She is a post-graduate student of Gladys Ives Brainard and was a member of Miss Brainard's European tour group of last summer. While in Europe, Mrs. Webster appeared in concert at Munich and Weimar.

NEW HEAD OF CLUB AND DAUGHTER

The fact that Mrs. David Delo has been elected president of the Campus club does not perturb young Diana Delo, who seems perfectly confident that her mother will continue to find time to play with her in spite of her new duties. Diana will celebrate her second birthday anniversary in June. Mrs. Delo was named president of the club, which is made up of Lawrence college faculty women and wives of faculty men, at the annual meeting Monday. She is the wife of the assistant professor of geology at the college. (Post-Crescent Photo)

Flowers Will be Worn in Remembrance of World
War Dead

Plans for Poppy day on Saturday are complete, according to Edward Lutz, general chairman. Volunteers of the American Legion auxiliary will be stationed at the various street corners with the flowers. Contributions will be used to aid disabled war veterans and their families and families of the war dead.

A poppy workshop was instituted at the Veterans administration, Milwaukee, this year and about 300 men worked at making the little red crepe paper poppies during the last three months. Each man was allowed to produce 1,200 poppies, and when a man had completed his quota, his place was automatically taken by another man. In this way every man who signified his wish to make poppies had an equal opportunity with the others. A total of 510,000 poppies was produced.

Crownhart Hits Bills Affecting Medical Practice

Secretary of State Society Outlines Faults in Proposed Laws

The cooperation of all members of the medical profession in combating a number of measures proposed in the state legislature and relating to the delivery of medical service was asked by J. G. Crownhart, secretary of the state medical society, at a banquet meeting of the society's sixth council district at Conway hotel last night.

Scoring the experimental nature of the proposed program, Crownhart said that if members of the legislature understand, on the basis of information from members of the medical profession, what the proposals would do if passed, he was confident that "no such proposals as these" would be enacted.

He said the welfare of the patients is the only yardstick by which legislative proposals need be measured, because welfare of patients and the profession have never differed. Frequently the bills open with high sounding objectives, he said, but the question is whether those objectives would be accomplished by the provisions the bills contain.

No "State" Objection

The proposals are not opposed because they are "state medicine," he explained. When the medical profession saw the need for a state institution for care of the insane it went to the legislature and obtained Mendota. Similar action by the profession resulted in the creation of an institution for the feeble-minded, the first state tuberculosis sanatorium and the board of health, all forms of state medicine, he recalled.

Some proponents of the bills now proposed say the measures are frank experiments, but such experiments affect nearly three million citizens of Wisconsin, Crownhart said.

"That type of experiment is not the sort of health service that should be brought to the people of the state," he contended.

Study Proposed

A study is proposed to precede action on a part of the program, but there is no more technical subject in the world than how to improve delivery of medical service and still retain quality. The proposed study would meet with no objection, he said, but it should be thorough enough to obtain the facts, a project that would involve several thousands of dollars. Nothing would be more disastrous than to have legislators place reliance on information which is not reliable.

Briefly discussing each of the proposals, Crownhart explained that one provided for a county system of providing medical care for indigents, but would provide only for those on relief rolls and not for borderline cases recognized as in need of and worthy of assistance.

Another would provide for subsidizing physicians for rural areas. The profession has no objection to subsidizing or hiring physicians, but the problem doesn't exist in the state, he said, and the subsidies are the possibilities of "polling," the lack of provision for assuring proper qualifications, and operation of the plan by a lay board.

All at Public Expense

A third bill would empower counties to erect and maintain county hospitals. That, he said, is done under a law now on the books and permits free treatment of indigents but collection from patients who can afford to pay. The present proposal, he explained, provides that all patients in such hospitals would be treated at public expense.

Another proposal would provide for medical service by cooperatives. In spite of the title of cooperative, the plan would violate every principle of a cooperative by creating a middleman, provide no assurance of quality and eliminate the procedure of a return to the largest user. Crownhart explained. It would deal with cash, he charged. Furthermore, he said, detailed information on the operation of the plan in localities where it is being tried would not be available for more than a year.

Many Excluded

Crownhart also scored a bill which would provide compulsory sickness insurance for all employed manual laborers and all non-manual laborers receiving less than $13.25 a year.

Many workers, such as farmers, domestic help, city, county, state and federal employees would not be included, but about $27,000,000 would be raised each year. There is no limit in the bill on the proportion to be used for administration and a director, appointed by a representative board, would have all inclusive powers. His medical advice would be appointed and discharged by the director. The bill, he said, contains no provisions for qualifications of the director.

Studies have shown, further, he said, that $27,000,000 for which provision is made would be about 20 per cent short of the necessary amount for the proper service.

Could Hire, Fire

The director, he said, would have power to say who would give service and would have power to remove physicians could have hearings on removal but under the bill would not have recourse, at the hearings, to either statutory or common law.

The whole program, Crownhart said, deals not with the subject of medical economics, not with cost, but with the delivery of medical service, the conditions under which it should be delivered, to whom and how.

Admits Possession Of Stolen Property

Ryan in municipal court this morning. Sentence was deferred until June 9 and the defendant was released on $500 bond.

CHARGE DISMISSED
A charge against Al Kaszubski, Stevens Point, of failure to stop for a red light at Badger and W. College avenues was dismissed in the municipal court of Judge Thomas H. Ryan Tuesday afternoon. Kaszubski, who pleaded not guilty when he was arraigned May 17, was arrested on complaint of F. J. Leonard, Appleton.

Distinguished guests including Dr. Arthur Rogers, Oconomowoc, head of the state council, Dr. Stephen E. Gavin, Fond du Lac, president of the state medical society, outlined the history of the medical profession and the purposes of its organizations and lauded the work of a number of scientific committees in the state society.

Music at the banquet was provided by Margaret Ann, Joan and Mary Alice Flanagan, daughters of Dr. and Mrs. G. J. Flanagan, Kaukauna.

Simple Funeral Rites are Held at New York Estate For John D. Rockefeller

Tarrytown, N. Y.—(AP)—Brief funeral services, marked by a quiet simplicity in keeping with the late years of his life, were held today for John D. Rockefeller in the massive mansion of his Pocantico Hills estate.

The body of the 97-year-old philanthropist, who died Sunday, at The Casements, his winter home at Ormond Beach, Fla., rested on a flower-banked bier in the main hall near a great window overlooking the Hudson river.

The Rockefeller family, headed by John D. Rockefeller, Jr., close friends and a few long-time employees were seated in the library and dining room on either side of the hall.

Although the family had requested that no flowers be sent, the main rooms of the mansion were filled with blossoms of almost every known variety.

A pall of ferns spread over the casket and folded down onto the floor. Across the ferns was a full-length cross of orchids, the tribute of the financier's son.

Suspend Activities
As simple funeral rites marked his passing, activities of the international "oil empire" he founded were suspended throughout the world for five minutes out of respect for his memory.

The services, as planned by Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick, pastor of the Riverside Baptist church in New York, which the aged capitalist-philanthropist built, consisted of prayer, scriptural reading and organ rendition of some of his favorite hymns. These included "Abide With Me," "Sun of My Soul, Thou Saviour Dear" and "Sunset and Evening Star."

At the same time, in New York City, the famous "Laura Spelman Rockefeller Memorial Carillon," dedicated to Rockefeller's wife, played a special recital of hymns concluding with "Lead, Kindly Light."

John D. Rockefeller, Jr., now head of the family, and his wife soon will move into the many-turreted stone castle of his father. With them will be David, Winthrop and Nelson, three of their five sons. The others, John D. III, and Laurence, and their sister, Mrs. Abbie Milton, already have their own homes on the estate.

"The family will leave with the body on its pilgrimage to Cleveland and the Lakeview cemetery there at 7 p. m. (E. S. T.) up the Hudson at Harmon, the family's private car. The Pioneers, will be hooked to the Lake Shore limited at 7:50 p. m. and speed to Cleveland. There, where John D. Sr., began his career, he will be buried tomorrow beside his wife and mother.

The mystery of the missing cabin popped up again today to plague city officials.

This time the development is a claim for $1,000 against the city by Miss Bessie K. Steenis, representing the Steenis estate, which originally presented the city with a deed to the cabin. Miss Steenis claims the city promised that the cabin would be placed in its original condition and kept at Pierce park as a historical landmark.

The cabin, said to be the first light as a result of the claim.

Fisheries Bureau Wins Support in Wisconsin Senate

Upper House Puts Bill Beyond Amendment Stage By 18 to 15 Vote

Madison—(AP)—The two houses of the legislature went on record today for conflicting proposals to control commercial fishing in outlying waters.

The assembly passed and sent to the senate a bill supported by the state conservation department to give that body power to regulate all hunting and fishing in outlying and interstate boundary waters.

Meanwhile, the senate by a vote of 18 to 15 engrossed and sent to the finance committee a bill sponsored by commercial fishermen in Green Bay which would have the opposite effect of the assembly proposal. It creates a state bureau of fisheries under control of the legislature and independent of the conservation commission, with an annual appropriation of $50,000.

Madison—(AP)—The senate went on record today in favor of a bill establishing a state bureau of fisheries in charge of commercial fishing in outlying waters.

By a vote of 18 to 15 the senators placed the measure beyond the amendment stage and referred it to the finance committee for consideration of the $50,000 annual appropriation involved.

The roll call:
For the bill—Progressives, Anderson, Busby, Cashman, Hampel, Kannerberg, Kresky, Panzer, Paulson, Risser, Rowlands, Severson; Republicans, Cookley, Mack, Roethlisberger, Schoenecker—18.

Against the bill—Progressives, Ingelbrett, Ingram, Laverich, McDermid, Rust, Republicans, Dell, Morris, Nelson, Shearer, White, Democrats, Callan, Clancy, Morrissey, Zimmy—15.

Sensors John Cashman (P), Denmark and Michael Kresky, (P), Green Bay, led the fight for the bill. Cashman said the state conservation department had been in charge of fish propagation for generations and has made a failure of it. He added that the department spent nearly $35,000 on its Great Lakes fishing operations in the last fiscal year.

Kresky suggested reference to the finance committee until the governor's reorganization plan for state government is received.

Senator Harry Bolens (D), Port Washington, principal opponent of the bill, said only a small minority of the commercial fishermen want the bureau, which he said would be a "one-man bureau."

The measure calls for appointment of a director, at a salary of $3,500 a year, who has had 10 years experience as a commercial fisherman in outlying waters.

The assembly today passed a conservation commission committee bill giving the conservation department authority to regulate fishing in all boundary and outlying waters.

800 Workers are Granted Pay Hike at Kansas City

Kansas City—(AP)—Eight hundred National Bellas Hess employees went to work today with a 12 per cent wage increase, retroactive to May 24. Carl D. Berry, president of the company, said the new agreement, signed last night with the employees' union, also guaranteed a minimum work week and seniority rights.

Last March a 14 per cent wage increase and vacations were granted. No estimate of the value of the rise could be made, Berry said, because of the seasonal type of work.

Librarians Hear About Efforts to Keep High Professional Standards

That there is a constant effort to keep the standards of librarians high and on a par with those of teachers whose training is about equal to that of librarians was brought out in a talk by Miss Hazel Timmerman, Chicago, of the American Library association, before the opening session of the annual meeting of the Fox River Valley Library association this morning in the auditorium of the Wetengel building.

Miss Timmerman covered the problem of librarians' salaries, working hours, vacations and sick leaves, adding that restoration of salaries for librarians is lagging behind the salary restorations in industry. She pointed out that there is considerable restlessness and shifting of position in the library profession at the present time because of the fact that the depression caused many librarians to hold on to the jobs they had. The present changes are the result of that prolonged static condition, she said.

Miss Sybil Schuette, librarian at Green Bay, reported on the cooperation which is in effect among librarians in the Fox river valley, and Miss Eileen McGee, Stevens Point, discussed the division into districts for the purpose of holding special district meetings like the one in session today in Appleton. Miss Martha Klein, Oshkosh, reported on activities of the young librarians in the district.

After the morning session, the librarians attending the valley meeting were guests at a luncheon at All Saints Episcopal parish hall, Appleton. High school ensembles played several selections before the lunch-con.

Council Action Assures Opening Of Pool on June 7

Aldermen Provide Funds
For Purchase of Necessary Equipment

New London—Completion of minor jobs in preparation for the opening of the Hatten Community Recreation park and swimming pool as planned on June 7 has been assured by action of the common council at an adjourned meeting last night.

The park board was authorized to appoint the life guards and pool attendants and fix their salaries for approval of the council at the next meeting, June 1. The board of public works was instructed to have Washington and Beacon streets leading to the park graveled and stone walks laid along W. Washington street, followed by the same work on the boulevard drive along the east side of the park.

Order Eligible Men

To hasten completion of the smaller jobs the council decided to order all eligible men on the relief rolls to report for work to F. A. Jennings, superintendent of the WPA park project, Thursday morning. William Lipke, poor commissioner, also was instructed to notify all relief clients of the order.

The men will be expected to work out their relief checks at the rate of 30 cents an hour. While at the park they will work for the city under the supervision of Mr. Jennings and will be subject to call to any other job in the city at any time. Clients have always been obligated to work out their relief checks for the city but difficulty in the past has been to find the men when certain work was to be done, it was explained.

Order Equipment

The park board was given authority to purchase small items which will be needed to put the pool in practical operation. Among the goods requisitioned were 10 gallons of aluminum paint for the pool filter tanks in the bathhouse, first aid kit, cash box and 500 aluminum check tags, a rescue pole and 100 feet of rope for the pool, and a dozen cotton swim suits and towels for occasional rental purposes. Doors and lockers in the bathhouse and the pool must be lettered properly.

West Wolf River avenue was ordered closed from S. Pearl street to Dorr street as soon as possible because of the heavy traffic to which the road there is subjected daily. The cost will be payable from the general fund.

The city clerk also was authorized to sell 1,000 cords of city firewood at $2.25 a cord.

Tavern Licenses

The question of raising the license fee of taverns to $200 was discussed briefly with Ike Poeple appearing in behalf of the New London Tavern Keepers' association. In reply to why the council wanted to raise the fee, aldermen explained it should be in line with other cities which are as high as

Three Students Placed On Typist's Honor Roll

New London—Three high school students of Typing I classes were placed on the first all-school typing roll at Washington High school yesterday. Norman Pronold and Miss Alice Ziemer, instructors. Seventeen were awarded certificates for their ability to type 40 or more words per minute.

Three girls met the requirements of the honor roll, Phyllis Stern and Audrey Dean, sophomores, with speeds of 60 and 52.4 words per minute respectively, and Beverly Eggers, senior, with 53.5 words per minute. A minimum of 50 words per minute is required to be eligible for the honor roll. This is the first year that high school typists have received honor recognition and the roll will be added to in future years.

Those receiving certificate awards are Arline Quant, Phyllis Christian, Jane Huebner, Marian Hoffman, Marie Loss, Marjorie Miller, Leona Mundt, Gertrude Plotz, Loraine Pribbenow, Maude Brown, Mary Dawson, Verna Flunker, Ruth Sawall, Alice Kussorow, Arlene Queaman, and the three honor winners, Audrey Dean, Beverly Eggers and Phyllis Stern.

The Dorcas society of the Methodist church will hold a regular meeting at the Red Geranium Tea room Thursday afternoon. Mrs. L. C. Lowell will be hostess assisted by Mrs. C. L. Farrell, Mrs. William Sager and Mrs. L. M. Warner.

$350. Poeple pointed out that the fee at Appleton is only $150. The matter was tabled for further study and will be taken up later. In case of adoption of the higher fee, it would not be effective until July, 1938.

Mayor Wendlandt aired his views in favor of a light and water commission to manage the New London Municipal Light and Water plant. While he voiced no complaint against the management under a board of public works composed of three aldermen, it was his opinion that a more efficient set-up would result from the establishment of a commission. The latter system is favored by the Wisconsin Public Service commission, he pointed out.

Take Politics Away

The mayor explained that the city owns the plant and operates it the same as a private business is operated and under such conditions he considered it unfavorable to let city politics intervene. He declared it was a business, not a government proposition, and ultimate control would rest with the city council. Commissioners would receive a salary of about $15 a month.

At present the city receives from the plant about $17,500 in annual dividends of 8 per cent and taxes totaling $9,000 to $10,000. The city has invested an equity or capital stock of $167,000 and is indebted to the plant for $35,000 on previous advanced loans.

BY WALTER LIPPMAN

Concerning Mr. Rockefeller

Lippman

Though Mr. Rockefeller was only the most conspicuous of a group of fabulously rich men, his wealth was an historical accident. Only in America, and only in the period from the Civil War to the World War, could such a fortune have been founded. Before he started his enterprises it was not possible to make so much money; before he died, it had not become the settled policy of this country that no man would be permitted to make so much money. He lived long enough to see the methods by which such a fortune can be accumulated outlawed by public opinion, forbidden by statute, and prevented by the tax laws.

The Rockefeller family have understood this very clearly. They have not pretended that their fortune represented the normal rewards of successful enterprise, and long ago they had ceased to regard it as their personal property. They have known that this fortune did not really belong to them, and that, accidentally, they were its temporary custodians.

It has been no easy task to make tolerable in a democracy the private administration of such a monstrous aggregation of wealth and power. Somehow the Rockefellers have succeeded, and in an age when sentiment has turned wholly against the private acquisition of so much wealth, they have no bitter enemies, and very generally they are deeply respected.

Never Have Found Odor of Conscience Money

Perhaps one of the secrets of the family's reputation today is that in their philanthropy there has been none of the odor of conscience money. They have not sought to buy the goodwill of the mass of the people by subsidizing obviously and easily popular schemes. On the contrary, they have devoted their endowments to supporting precisely those civilized needs which popular governments are most inclined to neglect.

Whether they were aware of it or not, they have followed the advice given many years ago by Mr. Bernard Shaw when he wrote a tract called "Socialism for Millionaires," arguing that a millionaire should never give the community anything it could possibly be induced to support voluntarily. The support which the Rockefellers have given to higher education and to research is over and above anything that the American democracy of their epoch could or would have provided. Good Repute Not Won By their Generosity

The good reputation which the family has achieved is inspired by no special sense of gratitude for their generosity. As a matter of fact, the American people do not think it generous in a billionaire to give away most of his money. They expect it of him. They think it the very least he can do. But what they do respect in the Rockefellers is the absence of all cajolery and public bribery; what they admire is the conscientious and disinterested intelligence with which they have restored to the community so considerable a part of this great accumulation.

They have done much with their wealth that needed to be done, though ordinarily it would not have been done. Mr. Rockefeller's death raises the question as to how in the future, when no man will be per-

The new cooling system recently installed at the Pauly and Pauly Cheese plant here was completed this week. Formerly the plant used the old ice system, the storage capacity of the old warehouse being about four carloads. At present the plant is capable of storing about fifteen carloads. Several local men were employed at the plant during the last two weeks.

OSTRICH GOES DANCING

New York—Capri oysters will flutter in the summer breezes over lace and chiffon evening gowns. The capes are favored particularly for summer wear because of their light weight, and the variety of color combinations they afford.

WOMAN'S AILMENTS

MANY women are troubled with monthly pains, headache, backache, or "heat flashes." Those who suffer from nervousness, irritability and the discomforts associated with functional disturbances, need a tonic like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which stimulates the appetite, thus helping to rebuild the body. Read what Mrs. Elizabeth Lippin of 25-5th Ave., Danville, Ill., said: "I couldn't get to sleep at night, had no appetite and was losing weight. Finally I tried Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, as a tonic. It helped me from the first by causing me to eat more, then I gained in every way and was able to go about my work. That was almost 20 years ago." Buy of your druggist today. New size, tablets 50c, Liquid $1.00 & $1.35.

Lawrence Tracksters Receive Awards at Student Convocation

Varsity, Frosh Winners Read by Coach A. C. Denney

Vikes to Enter Special Events, One Relay At Beloit Meet

LAWRENCE college track and field team, winner of the state college title for the second consecutive time, winner in dual meets with Ripon, Carroll and Beloit, and third place winner for the second year in the Midwest conference meet, was honored today at student convocation at Lawrence Memorial chapel.

Marty Bridges, president of the "L" club presided at the chapel program and Joe Maertzwiler read the names of the winners. It was announced that the club would sponsor a Father's day program on Oct. 13, the day of the Lawrence-Carleton football game. Coach A. C. Denney of the track squad then announced the letter winners. It also was announced that the "L" club had made Dean John S. Mills of the college an honorary member.

Varsity awards went to Edward Fritz, Shorewood; Joe Graf, Watonsa; Carleton Grode and Charles Gerlach, Menasha; Junior Kapp, Sam Leete, Evan Vande Walle and Frank Schubert, Appleton; Joe Maertzwiler, Milwaukee; and Cliff Osen, DePere. Roger Fischer, Elmhurst, Ill., won a senior managers' award while Art Tichenor, Maplewood, Mo., was advanced from junior to senior manager, and Robert Stocker, Chicago, from sophomore manager to junior manager.

Freshman winners were awarded to Charles Cape, Racine; Ken Buesing, Bill Lohr and Bruce Stevens, Appleton; Wayne Cochran, Winnetka, Ill.; Glen Lockery, Rosholt; and Fred Skow, Clinton, Ia.

Leete High Point Man
Leete was high point winner for the Vike tracksters this season and his name probably will be recommended for the DeGoy Ellis plaque which hangs in the gymnasium. Leete scored 801 points and was followed by Joe Graf with 59, Junior Kapp and Evan Vande Walle with 41 each, Carleton Grode with 33, Ed Fritz and Charles Gerlach 22 each, and Cliff Osen 19, with other members of the squad scoring lesser points.

With the two big meets of the season out of the way and with examinations in the immediate offing, Vike tracksters have almost completed their season.

A few of the men are remaining in shape to compete in some of the events of the Beloit relays and the Central Intercollegiate, the latter meet at Milwaukee on June 4.

The Vike entry in the Beloit meet will feature Graf in the century and broad jump; Kapp in the discus and shot; and Leete in the high jump and broad jump. The only Lawrence relay team to be entered will be in the freshman division where a sprint medley squad composed of Cochran, Buesing, Cape and Lohr or Lockery will show.

No Varsity Relay Team
The Vike varsity is not entering any relay teams because of exams and because there hasn't been enough time to work on relays since Saturday's state college meet which the Vikes felt was more important.

The Lawrence entries in the Central Intercollegiate probably will be Graf, Kapp and Leete.

Several of the Vike varsity and freshman tracksters also are interested in the state A. A. U. track meet to be held at Green Bay in June. They figure they'd ought to be able to collect a few medals in special events and in some of the relay races. By combining freshman and varsity talent, permissible under the A. A. U. rules and college rules, the tracksters figure they can make a big dent in the awards.

Chaff 'n Chatter

By Gordon R. McIntyre

SOME of the Lawrence college tracksters who were aroused at Louis Means' cracks about the way Lawrence handled dual meets in not meeting Mr. Means' demands to run the relay when he wanted it run here, and his stories to the Beloit folks about the big rain we had that afternoon, have plenty of things to say regarding the state college track meet like an orphaned kid.

For one thing the grass was so long on the gridiron the shot putters had to dig around for the iron ball as if it was a golf ball lost in the rough; the javelin throwers were given a swell chance to commit manslaughter by throwing the spear into the folks standing around the broad jump lane, as even Mr. Means' Beloit paper admitted; the angles for the shot and discus weren't marked or if they were they were lost in the grass; and before the afternoon ended students were judging most of the field events among others one Lawrence manager. In answer to comments about why the grass was not cut, Gold students said it couldn't be cut until just before Mr. Means ran his relay carnival Friday night.

All of which was something we wanted to know about. Ripon, Lawrence and Carroll have done much in the last couple years to build up the college track meet to point where the spectators were becoming interested because of the distance marks on the field and the ceremony that went with the meets. But apparently Means was more interested in his show Friday night.

The trophies the Vikings came home with were pretty fair pieces of mantle adornment. However, the relay race trophy was the outstanding one which prompted a Vike trackster to remark that perhaps Beloit figured it would win that trophy and therefore made it worthwhile. Well, Means can look at it when he visits Appleton.

Jackie Clarke at Beloit says "phooey" on state college pole vaulting adding that the winning jump of 11-3 wouldn't bring better than third in the Big Eight. Or in the Fox River valley conference.

Just before the start of the 440 at Beloit, Phillips of the Gold gave Charlie Gerlach of Lawrence a card—it was a joker. And then added insult to injury by nosing out Gerlach for third place.

Was Charlie ever mad. . . . But in the relay race Charlie happened to again run against Phillips and when Charlie was on the final 100 yards and leading his tormentor by a goodly margin he turned his head and hurled a taunt that gave him the last word for the day.

Roundly the sage of Mendota says that "This boy Radder (from Kaukauna) in left field for Wisconsin is a better folk. one of them college boys who steps up and walks into that ball. He is left handed, hits nice motion up there and gets power back of his swings with easy motion. A sweet hitter and how. Radder is best looking hitter I saw at Wisconsin in years. He cracked two three batters and ma-ma were they ever hit."

has signed Cully Zinth and Kimberly claims it has Ray Helixson. . . . But when Sunday rolls around Zinth is with Kimberly and Helixson is missing. . . . Cully was top swatsmith in the State league a couple years ago with Oshkosh and Kaukauna but he didn't get a hit Sunday. . . .

Fred J. Rogers, New London, this week was announced the winner of an auto radio in a radio broadcast contest, for this answer to the question, "Why do you think baseball is called the great American game?"

"I think baseball is called 'The Great American Game' because you can swing, fly, run, walk, whiff, twirl, strike, steal, juggle, hit, chop, punt, bat, balk, assist, fan, hug, throw, pass, rally, slide, squat, toss, whallop, score, kick, bingle, get a ticket to a circus, play, and free transportation home, all for the price of one ticket to a ball game."

There's nothing much to add about the Valley conference relays at Manitowish last Saturday. . . . The meet was handled well despite the necessity for running the relays in sections because the track isn't wide enough. . . . And the coaches behaved very well—probably because only Tom Hearden and Joe Shields were in the running. . . . Tvas a rather uncomfortable afternoon for John Waller of the Press-Gazette watching an Appleton team heat his pride and joy. . . . And after it was over he said he thought Appleton had a mighty good squad. . . . And was glad it had finally won a relay carnival honestly. . . . Referring of course to the way Green Bay West handled the relays last year at the Bay and the East runner grabbing Appleton's famous drop of the baton. . . . of course John remembered only the last incident. . . . So if it's any consolation let him go around with his cockeyed notion. . . .

Louis Indulges in Five-Round Workout

Kenosha—Joe Louis, Negro challenger for Champion James J. Braddock's world heavyweight title, punned sparring mates through a savage five-round workout yesterday before an audience of visiting newspaper critics from Braddock's Michigan camp.

Louis displayed his best form in three drills as he coordinated his timing and technique. He unloaded a bombardment of heavy punching in one of the one-minute sessions which sent Lloyd Clemons, Pittsburgh sparring mate, to the floor three times.

Louis will continue ring drills on Thursday, Saturday, Sunday and Memorial day as part of the training grind for his bout with Braddock at Chicago June 22.

A new detachment of sparring mates will arrive next week.

Just try to keep track of some of the ball players in the state league. . . . Oshkosh says it about everything he tried last year. He holds the conference high hurdles record, plays bang-up basketball, and has been twice chosen at end on the all-conference eleven.

Bobby Rule's base-running in the tenth inning last night gave the Appleton Junior Chamber of Commerce softball team a 7-6 win over the Y. M. C. A. in a Fraternal league game at Wilson Junior High school diamond. With one out in the extra inning, Rule singled to left and stole second base on the first pitch. With Roemer at bat, Rule broke for third and continued to the plate when Horton, Y catcher, threw the ball into left field.

The Y scored two runs in the first inning on two walks, two hits and an error. The Jacs scored one in the second inning but the losers tallied twice in the fourth frame. Aided by two errors, the Jacs defeated the place twice in the fourth inning and then went ahead, 5-4, with two runs in the fifth on hits by Roemer and Stach. Lessel-yong cracked a homer with McKenzie on base in the seventh to put the Y ahead but the score was tied in the eighth inning when Herzog singled Stach home.

Wheeler pitched eight innings for the Jacs but went behind the bat in the ninth when Herzog, catcher, was injured by a foul tip. Stach pitched the last two frames. Lessel-yong went the route for the losers.

Illini Nine Needs Win To Claim Baseball Title

Chicago—(U)—Illinois' baseball warriors went to Northwestern today after a share at least, of the 1937 Big Ten championship.

The Illini undefeated since dropping their opening conference start to Ohio State, 5 to 1, April 23, faced the Wildcats today in their final battle needing a victory to be certain of sharing the championship with Indiana.

John Gee, Michigan's towering right-hander, achieved a no-hit, no-run masterpiece yesterday as the Wolverines defeated Hillsdale, Mich., college, 3 to 0.

Indiana scored a 3 to 4 decision over Butler in another non-conference tilt, and Purdue took a 6 to 1 beating from Notre Dame.

Shute Prepares To Defend His Pro Golf Crown

Polishes Up Putting for First of Match Play Rounds Today

Pittsburgh Field Club, Aspinwall, Pa.—(P)—Defending Champion Denny Shute of Boston put on a strong finish to whip Joe Turnesa, Tucker, N. Y., two and one in the first 18 hole match play round of the Professional Golfers' championship here this morning.

Two down at the turn. Shute shot two-birdies in the first three holes of the second nine and then went ahead for the first time with a par 3 on the fourth. Turnesa lost that hole and also 15 by three-putting.

BY DILLON GRAHAM
PITTSBURGH—(P)—A tall, thin chap methodically rapped golf balls into the Pittsburgh field club's twelfth hole as dusk fell over the deserted links last night. Grasshoppers and crickets were his only companions.

The day's qualifying round fireworks in the professional golfers' association championship were over. The lucky players relaxed around dinner tables. Those with scores too high studied transportation schedules.

Two of the game's keenest putters struck ball after ball along a "line" he could hardly see. Denny Shute was polishing an already fine putting touch.

Almost every golfer in the P. G. A. tournament would gladly trade putting abilities with Shute and no questions asked. But champion Denny, who won the tournament last year and faced in the finals, Turnesa, N. Y., this morning in the first of two "sudden death" 18-hole match play rounds, wasn't satisfied.

Nelson Meets Diegel
Byron Nelson, who learned as a railroad clerk to keep on a straight track and has been off the fairways only twice in 1908 holes, tackled a master match player in his first duel, pendulum-plugging Leo Diegel of Philadelphia, twice champion.

Nelson picked up where he left off in Georgia a month ago. He won the Augusta masters' tournament, hopped to Reading, Pa., to get acquainted at his new job, and returned to competition with the same bristling game. Yesterday he tracked a 71 on his opening 68 for a 139 total that won qualifying medal by three shots. Nelson is a younger hungry for fame and cash and he'll take a lot of beating.

Harry Cooper, the expert Chicagoan who has won everything but a national crown, ran into Ben Richter of St. Louis, the best left-handed golfer ever.

Cooper gave Nelson a chase for the medal but finished three blows short.

Ten players with totals of 157 played off for the last three places. Willie MacFarlane, Sam Bernardi and John Kindler won.

Brewers Lose Fourth Straight; Walk Results in Winning Run

CHICAGO—(P)—There were no signs of panic yet, but Milwaukee's American association leading Brewers had the makings of a real slump today.

The 1936 champions, the sensation of the early part of the race and still leading the pack by a comfortable margin, dropped a 7 to 6 decision to Toledo last night for their fourth straight defeat. The Brewers did plenty of hitting, out-slugging the Mud Hens, 12 to 7, but eight walks and a hit batsman by Bill Zuber and three more passes by Ralph Winegarner, gave Toledo all the ammunition necessary.

Winegarner, who worked less than two innings, was charged with the defeat, as he was on the scene when Manager Fred Haney, serving as pinch-runner for Ed Coleman, scored the winning runs before a man was out in the ninth. John Rizzo, Columbus' sensational young slugger, collected only one hit against Kansas City in another of the full program of night games, but it was enough to win the ball game, 6 to 5, and run his consecutive-game hitting streak to 35. With two out in the last of the ninth, Rizzo slammed one of Willie Moore's pitches over the right field fence for a homer.

Minnesota retained its slender edge over Toledo in the battle for second place by out-slugging Indianapolis for a 12 to 10 victory. The Indians staged a wild uprising in the sixth, smashing in 10 runs. The Indians rallied for seven runs in the seventh and another pair in the ninth to make a battle of it to the finish.

Walt Singer kept seven St. Paul hits well apart as Louisville won its fourth straight victory, 9 to 1. Rosen, Mathewson and Simons, with three hits apiece, led the Colonels' 12 hit attack on four Saint hurlers.

the fact that the union musicians in the pool city were not able to give a hand. However, there was a good turnout of fans and they saw quite a march around the bags.

With seven games still to be played, changes in first and second places in the league are expected. St. Mary, Kaukauna, now heads the conference with six wins in seven starts while St. Joseph, Appleton, has won five games in six starts.

The four contenders have played close games when tangling with each other and all teams are given an even chance of upsetting the leaders.

Manager Morris Brault, usually a reliable infielder, was charged with three boots in the Green Bay game. The Two Rivers fans started to ride Brault but their jeers turned to cheers when the icebergs took over the lead.

Bernie Neumann, who managed Two Rivers last year, has blossomed forth as president of the club and no longer dons a uniform to coach at first base. Instead he does his master minding from a seat in grandstand with the fans.

Shorty Zuidmuller is cavorting around again frisky as a colt for the Sox at first base. He pulled a leg muscle early in the season but has shaken off his injury and he should have a banner season on the diamond.

Mayor Arthur Schuetz, the Northern State league president, dropped in at two of the Sunday games in the Valley last Sunday. He saw a few innings of the Kaukauna-Oshkosh tilt and then went to Kimberly for the Little Chute battle.

Bill Baye, athletic director at the Wisconsin State reformatory, spends his Sundays as an umpire in the Northern State league and is well known around the loop, and the players as well as the fans are giving him a good break this year.

Ken Kriesel, the Oshkosh manager, must have found a four leaf clover somewhere because after a lot of bad breaks Dame Fortune has started to smile again. In signing Steven Koslowski, he landed a winning pitcher at last.

The Oshkosh pilot closed the deal for Koslowski only two hours before the Kaukauna game. The slabster was under contract to Kimberly but Wilkey Berendt, the Papermakers' manager, traded to Oshkosh for Outfielder Cully Zinth.

The cold weather has raised havoc with pitchers in the Northern State and several of the top-notch hurlers including Johnny Rowe of Green Bay and Lefty Joe Fetka of Kaukauna are being troubled with sore salary wings.

Two Rivers raised its 1936 pennant without any parade due to

SETS SHOT RECORD

Don Heinrich, above, of the Roosevelt Junior High school ninth grade, set a new junior high shot record Monday afternoon when he pushed the iron ball 50 feet, 91 inches in the annual junior high track meet. The feat also earned him a chance to join the Appleton High school squad where he will work for the next ten days in the hopes he can pick up a couple points in the Valley conference meet at Green Bay, June 4. The youngster weighs 268 pounds and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chet Heinrich. (Post-Crescent Photo)

Doctors Worry Over Cochran

Fear Sinus Infection as Result of Fractured Skull

New York—(P)—Dangers of infection of the sinuses caused added concern today as three physicians sought to save the life of Gordon (Mickey) Cochran, Detroit baseball manager who was struck in the right temple by a ball thrown by Irving (Bump) Hadley in yesterday's game against the New York Yankees.

Cochran's condition was pronounced satisfactory in a bulletin issued this morning at St. Elizabeth's hospital but the danger of infection was noted. The bulletin read:

"Mr. Cochran has a fracture of the skull and a mild cerebral concussion. At present he is comfortable and there are no indications for an operation. The fracture unfortunately connects with one of the sinuses and a possibility of infection is therefore being considered. His condition is satisfactory.

The bulletin was signed by Drs. Byron Stookey, Alexander Nicoll and Robert Emmett Walsh, who is staff physician for the Yankees.

Cochran was "beaten" in the fifth inning of yesterday's game, with the count three balls and two strikes. Hadley threw a high, fast one. Cochran attempted to duck but he appeared to fall in the path of the ball. He was knocked unconscious and carried to the dressing room on a stretcher and thence to the hospital.

Mrs. Cochran took a plane from Detroit last night and arrived this morning.

It was later learned the Tiger manager has three fractures. During the night he suffered a slight hemorrhage and opiates were administered.

Physicians said it would be necessary to keep Cochran absolutely quiet for at least 10 days, which means no operation will be performed in the meantime.

"I COMPARED THEM ALL... THEN PICKED CHRYSLER ROYAL!"

—says CHARLES H. BRINGMAN CLEVELAND

"WHEN I HEARD Chrysler was invading the low-priced field, I was intensely interested in what kind of car this Chrysler would be. I not only looked it over carefully... but compared it with the other cars in its field.

"I found nothing that approached the Chrysler Royal in sheer dollar-for-dollar value. And since I have owned it, it has exceeded my highest expectations... in economy... riding comfort... and performance.

"I AM MORE pleased with the Chrysler Royal than any other car I have owned. Its styling is so distinctively different. And really—no other car, even those priced considerably higher, compares with it for roominess. The safety of its all-steel body gives me a genuine feeling of security."

"I THINK THAT the Chrysler Royal is the best looking car on the road... and it certainly is a wonder to drive. I use my Royal in business, and in all kinds of driving. I easily show 15 miles per gallon of gasoline. I never saw a better riding car."

THE BIG CHRYSLER Royal costs little more than the lowest-priced cars. Easy to buy on convenient terms with the official Commercial Credit Company plan.

"EVEN WITHOUT its remarkable economy, the Chrysler Royal would be a great car from the standpoint of power, pick-up, smoothness and riding comfort. MURDER ON THE BLUFF

SYNOPSIS: Michael Farrington and I (I'm Jim Wells) share a small apartment in New York. In February his two aunts invite us to Farrington Bluff for a weekend because the Skipper (his younger aunt) is not well and needs company. Mike takes along Gay Palmer his red-haired heart interest, and we reach the little island estate at nightfall. The Skipper, tall, square and mannish, looks startlingly gray and worried. Martha Farrington, the small, stout, rather prudish aunt, as "Victorian" and correct as ever. The wind shrieks as we go upstairs to change for dinner.

Chapter Two
JUDE GETS MIKE ALONE

T RUE to the Skipper's hint, Jude Blinshop put in an appeal was not much of a success. The atmosphere was peculiar. For one thing, the conversation was too free and easy for an M. Farrington function.

Not once did Mike have occasion to kick my shins under the table as I hovered on the brink of a slip. Not once did M. Farrington edge him into an exasperating conversation with Jude Blinshop or suggest that he must show the child the conservatory directly after dinner. And not once did the Skipper so much as chuckle during the entire meal.

It has since occurred to me that the disappointing flatness was due to the absence of the spirit of chase. We were keyed up a contest that never transpired. I caught myself recalling M. Farrington's campaign for Tessie Appleton almost wistfully. That had been a weekend! And with Mary Gould-Well, certainly the old lady was losing her grip.

Jude Blinshop, by the way, deserves a word or two of description. Although I hadn't seen her in some time, she and I had been very fond of each other once in the dim, dark past. One of those sleek, slender girls for whom the collegiate world has coined the word smooth. Her hair was very dark, combed straight back and caught low on her neck. Her eyes were a beautiful blue, matched exactly this evening by her gown. Her dark clear-cut profile gave a suggestion of aloofness and indifference.

Beside her Gay Palmer looked pudgy, cherubic and thoroughly insignificant. But not to Michael's way of thinking. Since his first pair of long pants, Mike had never succumbed to Jude's charms - a situation that had always been quite agreeable to me.

Coffee in the library proved an even more dismal affair. We had by that time pretty well exhausted our stock subjects of conversation - the respective healths of Mr. and Mrs. Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Blinshop, M. Farrington's cat, and the Skipper's dogs - not to mention the severity of the winter and the spring repairs. We had also discussed Michael's social activities to date, condition of my present novel, the recollection of the previous one, Jude's opinion of Florida, and Gay's longing to live in England.

The library did not share the dining-room's sheltered position, and the howl of the storm was painfully audible. Matters were decidedly at a standstill when Higgins appeared with the coffee.

The Stage Is Set

Michael had taken possession of Christopher, the repulsive Persian cat that occupied the place of honor in the heart of Martha Farrington. Seating himself calmly on the fender, quite unmindful of Christopher's strenuous objections, he caused feline arias to mingle with the general uproar. Miss Farrington sat bolt upright at a discreet distance from the fire, while the two girls were arrayed on the davenport and the Skipper and I took our stand beside Michael. The stage was set, but the lines were sadly missing. Except for the wind and ax.

Without Calumet—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning!

The liver should pour out two pounds of bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in your bowels. Calumet cleans up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, weak and the world looks pink.

Laxatives are only makeshifts. A more powerful movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes these good, old Calumet's Little Liver Pills to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Calumet, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Calumet's Little Liver Pills by name. Stubbornly refuse anything else, etc.

Pegler Retells Story of Jewel Thief's Sentence

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER

New York—L. F. Chapman, superintendent of the Florida State prison at Raiford, asks for an opportunity to deny that Harry Sidmore, a New York thief, has been held in solitary confinement for five years, as reported in these dispatches. The same mail brings from a friend of Sidmore on the outside a reiteration of the claim and the further charge that he has been subjected to physical and mental torture.

On the physical side it is alleged that he was squirted with a high-pressure hose which left him bleeding. On the mental side it is claimed that as punishment for an escape, Sidmore was confined 152 days in the death cage, and 14 months in death cells in the company of men condemned to the chair.

The difference between the cage and the cells is not explained, but I imagine the cage is either the execution room or the pre-execution cell and the other place is the general quarters of the condemned.

It can be admitted that Sidmore is a thief by trade and that the jewel robbery in Miami for which he received a sentence of 40 years, was merely a routine job in the career of a busy man. Nevertheless, a sentence of 40 years on a charge of breaking and entering in Miami naturally arouses suspicion.

It appeared that someone was over-anxious to get rid of Sidmore, and his friends insist that he kicked back money and jewels to certain public authorities personally, on their promise that he would get no more than five years.

The quality of statesmanship in Miami and vicinity has been very low ever since the first boom and if the charges and counter-charges heard in every local political campaign are one-tenth true, then the superintendent at Raiford should be ordered to dust out a few cells for distinguished guests.

Officer Shot Prisoners in Attempted Jail-break

My acquaintance with the Florida method of handling accused men happily is impersonal. I am still impressed by the turpentine camp atrocities exposed in the old New York World, and remember a little moonlight idyl in the old Miami Jailyard which was reminiscent of the political butcheries in Central America.

In that case a squealer tipped off a jailbreak and the gallant officers, instead of preventing the attempt, took positions unobserved and slaughtered the men as they ran through the trap.

A sweat-box was discovered in a prison road camp last year, after all such were supposed to have been abolished and just in large broad strokes, my picture of prison conditions in Florida and of Sidmore's plight in particular was bad.

Warden Says Sidmore Wasn't in Solitary Confinement

Warden Chapman says of Sidmore however, that "He has not been in solitary confinement for five years nor for any other appreciable time and has not been treated brutally or subjected to inhuman punishment." He has the same food as the 1,700 others, has the run of a large yard every day and all day in the open air and a clean, well lighted cell at night.

"As for physical comforts he fares better than most others since he has no onerous duties and is not crowded into a cell with several others."

"He is in the detention ward because he has made repeated attempts to escape and succeeded once by hiding under the hood of a truck. He has bribed a guard for which the guard was put in jail, has attempted to arrange for bringing guns into prison and in many

Hollywood News And Gossip

BY ALICE FAYE
(Guest columnist for Robbin Coons)

Hollywood—Ever since I was a child I have wanted to travel. So I have perfected a way of living in "every part of the world" without leaving Hollywood.

I move from house to house, hotel to hotel, apartment to apartment. I have moved exactly 22 times since I came to Hollywood. A little less than four years ago from the New York stage. And each time I move I choose a different style house. Always I select one representing a different part of the world from the home I lived in last.

In spring and summer I live in houses. During the winter I prefer hotels and apartments. I moved into a home in Beverly Hills last week just before starting "You Can't Have Everything."

My new place is a 12-room English style home. It has a swimming pool, which is one of the main reasons I rented it. But since I couldn't go to the coronation in person, at least I could go to England in fancy by living in an English style home.

You might wonder why I move so often. It's an escape mechanism, I admit, but a very pleasant one. Most persons have some way in which they renew their outlook on things. Some buy a new hat, a pair of shoes, a dress or a suit. I move.

Although I've had only a few days off from picture work since last August—when I took a brief trip to New York—I have been almost around the world, residentially speaking. I have just moved out of a French Normandy home in Hollywood. Before that I lived in a Swiss chalet apartment house. Two months before that I lived in a hotel of Mediterranean architecture.

When the casting office calls me, instead of saying as many other players do, "Wait until I get my hat," I always say, "Wait until I move."

Don't get me wrong. I don't buy the places. I don't own even an occasional chair. I merely move my personal belongings each time I rent another place. When I finish my current picture I expect to into a long, rambling, lazy Spanish style home.

Such a change, I hope, will give me my "vacation."
